This course will help you meet Ofsted requirements on financial education, supporting schools in preparing learners for adult life by teaching how to financially plan, create a budget, build up savings and prepare for future financial endeavours.

About this course

The course follows Claudia as she plans and saves for a road trip to a music festival. As well as looking at why budgeting is essential and ways Claudia can pay for her trip, students are prompted to think about their longer-term ambitions and consider how they can achieve their financial goals.

The course has been designed in partnership with teachers and subject experts requiring minimal preparation; all subject knowledge you need is built in.
